Notes

- All rates above are inclusive of VAT
- My editing rates are guided by the SfEP's minimum rate guidelines and translation rates by the freelance fees guide. They reflect the fact that I work as a full-time freelance editor and translator
- I accept payment by bank transfer in British pound sterling, euros or US dollars. I also accept card payments through Paypal
- As the amount of work per 1000 words required can vary significantly, I am happy to quote at my standard rate per 1000 words but charge you hourly if that ends up working out cheaper for you. This means that if I copyedit a 6000-word journal article and it takes me 5 hours, you will pay £135 instead of £150
